Organised by

Atal Bihari Vajpayee Institute of Good Governance & Policy Analysis

The faculty of the Institute provides consultancy services to the state government and take up studies and analysis of issues and challenges in public policy for its departments, for Ministries of the Central Government and other agencies in the public sector. Presently the work spans across a large number of sectors, as well as on an area denominated basis. Sectors in which work is currently on includes Rural and Urban Governance, Natural Resource Management, Health, Agriculture, Animal Husbandry, e-Governance, Human Resource Development, Skills and Employment Generation, Tourism etc. Recently the Institute has been assigned a number of projects especially focusing on Bundelkhand and districts in Madhya Pradesh with a large population of Scheduled Tribes.

In an endeavour to keep broadening their knowledge horizon and deepen understanding of sectoral issues, the Institute's faculty seek to connect with eminent persons, and practitioners and implementers of public policy. Efforts include inviting such persons for an occasional lecture in a series titled Transformative Change, Sustainable Outcomes.
